FOREWORD

Welcome to International Conference on Education, Science, and Technology. It is an honor for Universitas Negeri Padang to have all invited speakers and participants.

The fourth industrial revolution (4.0) is marked by the advancement of technologies and powered by artificial intelligence which creates opportunities and challenges for education systems. University and vocational school graduates face a world transformed by technology which in turn transforms the workplace from task-based to human-centered characteristics. Certain skills such as critical thinking, emotional intelligence, problem solving, cognitive flexibility, and knowledge production are required. To address this demand, education system should put revolutionary innovation in its agenda. Scholars, researchers, and practitioners are invited to share their ideas, research outcomes, and best practices about education, science, and technology now and in the future in an international conference held by Universitas Negeri Padang as a part of the National Convention of Indonesian Education (KONASPI).

This conference elevates the theme “Education, Social Science, and Humanity in Industrial Revolution 4.0”. This theme is intended to accommodate various interests and expertise. Then, this theme is elaborated into 16 sub-themes: (1) Arts and Humanities, (2) Assessment, (3) Character Education, (4) Curriculum Development, (5) E-learning, (6) Early Childhood Education, (7) Educational Science and Technology, (8) Entrepreneurship, (9) Innovation in Science and Technology, (10) Quality Assurance in Education, (11) Research-Based Education, (12) Social Sciences, (13) Sport Sciences, (14) Teacher Education, (15) Teacher Professional Development, and (16) Teaching and Learning Methodology.

I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere gratitude to our invited speakers coming from different countries:

1. Prof. Christian Faltis from Ohio State University, USA
2. Prof. Dr. Dato’ Nozarah Mohd Nordin from Malaysia
3. Dr. Girija Republic Polytechnic from Singapore
4. Dr. Mas Nida Md, Khambari from Malaysia

Thanks are also due to all speakers and participants from a quite great number of universities and institutes from different universities in Indonesia and abroad. I would like to take this opportunity to thank them. Wish you a great conference and wonderful experience in Padang, the land of Minangkabau.

Padang, March 15, 2019
Chair of the Committee

Prof. Ganefri, Ph.D
